FIXING FOR THE FAIR. THIRTY-SIX MILITARY COMPANIES TO

The Prospect Good for a Fine Exhibition-The Races to be Something Extra.

The days of the State Fair are nearing rapidly, and from the number, variety, and character of the entries in the miscellane-ous department there will be an exhibition in that line beyond anything heretofore seen there. The displays of some of our Richmond firms will be a credit to themselves and the city. The horse and live stock exhibited, from the pedigrees and intrinsic value of the animals themselves.

After the ceremonal was tendered, and the common and the city. will be sufficient to attract the curiosity and excite the interest of persons who do not usually care for such things.

The trotting entries closed on the 16th, with every race filled, and they promise to handsome and numerous, embracing some of remarkable richness.

It is needless to say the presents thanksome and numerous, embracing some of remarkable richness.

WORTHAM-DUNLAP.

Marriage of a Richmond Gentleman

Mr. Henry M. Wortham and bride, nee Dunlyp, sister of Mrs. Ashton Starke, ar-rived in the city yesterday morning from Macon, where they were married on the 17th. The Telegraph and Messenger of that city gives the following account: The universal panularity of the bride

The universal popularity of the bride, and that commendable and ever-present curiosity which females feel on matrimonial subjects and occasions, filled Mulberry-Street church last night to its utmost capacity with eager spectators.

The church was not decorated, and with the exception of large vases of choice cut-flowers on either side the bridal couple, there was an entire absence of ornamentarally fair weather, northeasterly winds; stationary or falling barometer and temperature.

High Hats. The high (silk) hat is more than ever re-cognized as the standard head-gear for dress—and really nothing looks so well. No young or old gentleman at the North but what has one, and they are often struck with wonder at seeing so few worn on our streets. The reason is our young men are slow to adopt this hat, but when once adopted they at sight see the difference it makes in their appearance of dress. The new blocks are the prettiest ever seen, and make a most becoming hat. Messrs. A. Swift's Specific has cured me of Scrofula, which is hereditary in my family. I have suffered with it for many years, and have tried a great man physicians and all sorts of treatment, but to a nurpose, and when I began to take Swift's Specifit was in a horrible condition; but thanks to the great remedy, I am rid of the disease. There is no doubt that it is the greatest medicine in exist ence, and I hope any who doubt will write to me. E. C. HAWES, JE., Clarksville, Ga.

After suffering twenty-five years with a painful Dry Tetter, and trying many physicians. I was at last relieved by the use of Swift's Specific, and I cheerfully commend it to all similarly afflicted.
